2) How to get to the Czech University of Agriculture

Directions from the Ruzyne Airport to CUA Prague

Prague´s Ruzyne Airport is located 15 km west of the city centre. There is a bank for changing money (daily 7:00 - 23:00; if you arrived at the night, you´d be advised to exchange your money before you pass through customs), car-rental office and public phones, bar, shops etc. You can make your way from the airport to our campus by city bus, airport shuttle or taxi.

CSA operates an airport shuttle bus to and from its office in central Prague with the only stop at Dejvicka metro station. It leaves every 30 minutes from 7:30 to 19:30. The shuttle costs CZK 60 for the 30-minute trip.

Even cheaper is city bus nr. 119, which brings passengers from the airport to the Dejvicka metro station. The bus ticket costs only CZK 20. The 119 bus terminates at the Dejvicka, the travel time to the Dejvicka is about 30 minutes. Official airport taxis are plentiful and line up in front of the arrival terminal expect to pay about CZK 400 to CZK 500 for the 20 minute ride to the Dejvicka.

On Dejvická, there you get on bus number 107 or 147 to the bus stop called CUA (Česká zemědělská univerzita). Then you will cross the main street and go to the university student residence JIH (kolej JIH) which is situated in the CUA Prague campus. Guests accommodated in Pension JAS can use the same buses but get off already at the bus stop Kamycka. The Pension JAS is in the very vicinity of this bus stop. Nearby the Pension JAS is the CUA Sport Centrum. When you go along this Sport Centrum and then along the athletic field you get to the students´ residences. Behind them there is the rectorate building. It takes about ten minutes to get there from Pension Jas. The rectorate building is the highest building in the CUA Prague Campus.

Directions from railway stations to CUA - Suchdol

Passengers traveling to Prague by train typically pull into two central stations: Wilsonovo - Hlavní nadrazi (Wilson Main Railway Station) or nadrazi Holesovice (Holesovice Railway Station). Both are on line C of the metro system and offer a number of services, including money exchange, post office, and a luggage-storage area. Wilson´s station is usually the terminus for trains from west (Paris, Frankfurt) and east (Budapest), Holesovice station for trains from north (Berlin) and south (Vienna). You can get to Dejvicka by going on the metro to station Muzeum and there you can transfer to the green A line. Dejvicka is the last stop on the west end of A line.

On Dejvická, there you get on bus nr. 107 or nr. 147 to the bus stop called CUA (Česká zemědělská univerzita). Then you will cross the main street and go to the university student residence JIH (kolej JIH) which is situated in CUA Prague campus. Guests accommodated in Pension JAS can use the same buses but get off already at the bus stop Kamycka. The Pension JAS is in the very vicinity of this bus stop. Nearby the Pension JAS is the CUA Sport Centrum. When you go along this Sport Centrum and then along the athletic field you get to the students´ residences. Behind them there is the rectorate building. It takes about ten minutes to get there from Pension Jas. The rectorate building is the highest building in the CUA Prague Campus.
